

Kristen Douglas

Chief Public Affairs Officer, Northern Virginia Association of Realtors

Kristen Douglas is the Chief Public Affairs Officer at NVAR. She leads the associations government affairs and communications teams, strategically driving external media, public and community relations and advocacy opportunities at the broader regional, state and national level.

Kristen's strong strategic leadership experience in advocacy and media includes:

- Serving as Chief of Staff to a member of Congress
- Leading state and national political campaigns
- Serving as the DC-based federal lobbyist for a Top 50 Public University
- Lobbying at the federal and state level for a significant national non-profit
- Working with the national media and much more.